THAT EIGHTH FRANCHISE

In the Western League was not Secured by Charley Strobel.

Charles J. Strobel, manager of the Tocharies J. Strobel, manager of the Toledo Inter-state team, has returned from Chicago without a Western league franchise and with no immediate prospect of getting one. The league offized Strobel a franchise for three years, provided he would assume an indebtedness of $1,800 which was taken off the hands of Leadley by the teague. Omaha refused to consider such a proposition; Grand Rapids, by its representative, would not think of paying the debt, and Strobel refused.

It may be that Toledo will be considered later on, Strobel says, when opportunities for getting good men have passed. Strobel offered to pay $1,800 for the franchise, provided the league would return to Grand Rapids Slagel. Scott and "Old Hess" Twineham, the only players on the team who amounted to anything, in his opinion, but the league refused.

The meeting of the Inter-state league will probably be held shortly after Christmas. "Pop" Lytic, of the New Castle team, wants Langford, of Toledo, and offers any man on the team, harring Fleming, Miller and Nattress. ledo Inter-state team, has returned Death's Saddle-Horse.

When a man has overworked himself, and neglected his health, until he finally realizes that he is a sick man, he too frequently goes to some obscure physician who has had very little experience or practice; the result is a wrong diagnosis and the wrong treatment. A man in this condition, if he continues to work and takes the wrong medicine, is really making himself a saddle-horse for death.

Under these conditions, what a man really reed, is the advice and treatment of a physician of wide experience and practice. Dr. E. V. "A BACHELOR'S HONEYMOON." Of the successful "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," which will be next Monday's attraction at the Opera House, the New York-Telegram says:

The piece tells the story of how a man of the name of Bachelor, with an extremely moral sister and three well-grown daughters, marries a pretty actress and tries to keep his marriage a secret from relatives, and at the same time snatch a kiss now and then from his bride. The complications are applicing and some of the scenes are side-splitting. The cast is a good one for such a piece, including such-clever comedians as M. A. Kenndy in the title role, W. J. Ferguson, Albert Bruning and Max Figman. Miss Berenice Wheeler, as the actress-wife, plays her part with much thtelligence and discretion. The other ladies in the company are all sultably cast. The piece tells the story of how a man

"MY FRIEND FROM INDIA." The dramatic critics in New York united in saying that "My Friend from India," the comedy that will be at the Opera House on Wednesday, December 29, is funny, very funny, absurdly funny, outrageously funny. One of the critics said: "Criticism halts abashed Incinnati, in Beliweek Ducose is find. The thing rattles along consistently inconsistent and plausibly impossible to the end. It's just funny. That's all." Vell, that's what people want now-a-days at the theatre, at least the majority of theatre-goors do. The author has simply manufactured a frank, wholesome, noisy, kittenish farce that is full of real fun, and what is more strange, contains a number of novel and ingenious devices. The players who ingenious devices. The players who will present it here are equally candid purveyors of nonsense. Among Smyth & Rice's comedians are William C. Mandeville, Arthur Larkin, Ernest Wade, W. E. Colligan, Chas. Mitchel, Lute Frohman, Agnes Far, Ada Gliman, Margaret Otls. Louise Arnott and Julia Bachelor.

MARTIN'S PERRY. Paps and Mishaps in the Thriving City

Judge Mansfield has rendered his decision in the sensational divorce case which has occupied the attention of the Harrison county court for some time, in which Mrs. Matthew Roland siked to be separated from her husband. Mrs. Roland alleged extreme cruelty on the part of her husband and asked $6.00 alimony. Mr. Roland alleged cruelty, gross neglect of duty and wilful absence on the part of his wife, and asked $6.00 alimony. Mr. Roland alleged cruelty, gross neglect of duty and wilful absence on the part of his wife, and asked $6.00 alimony. Mr. Roland alleged cruelty, gross neglect of duty and wilful absence on the part of his wife, and asked for divorce. The evidence on both sides was highly sensational, the letters long and full of gushing love. The trouble, it seems, began soon after the homeymoon, when Mrs. Roland wanted her husband to move to Columbus. In rendering his decision Judge Mansfield said he thought it was a case where the son-in-law wished to unload the responsibility of keeping his mother-inlaw on some one else, hence he made an effort to find a husband for his wife's mother, and succeeded.

He also said there was nothing in the evidence that warranted a divorce and refused to grant Mr. Roland the decree. Mrs. Roland gets 200 within thirty days and $100 per year as long as she is his wife. The court room was crowded to its utimost every day.

PROSPEROUS CHRISTMAS.

It does not require a microscope to see that this is a more prosperous Christmas in Martin's Ferry than last year was. The merchants generally have not only had a larger holiday businses this year than last, but for several years, and some say it has been their best. More substantial presents have been bought than for years, and judging from the purchases yesterday there will be more good dinners in Martin's Ferry to-day that last Christmas. The merchants were quite busy yesterday and last night, many stores being crowded until late. Businers in almost every line was good this year and it is thought that more presents will be given by Martin's Ferry people than for years. The express agents and postoffice people have been rushed for several days. The barber shops were all kept open until 12 o'clock last night. Some of the manufacturing establishments are so busy that they wanted their men to work this morning, an unusual thing on Christmas. It does not require a microscope to see

How to Prevent Phenmonia.

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine, is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Romedy. We have used it quite extensively, and it has always given entire satisfaction.—Oigah, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for colds and is grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia.
